

Deewakar Satiya

B. E. CIVIL
Thapar Institute of Engineering and Technology,
Patiala, India.

9 years of multinational experience in IT Services and Project Management, in Diverse Sectors like DataWarehousing, Retail and E-Security

Project Lead, UnitedHealth Group

- Setup and Managed a 20 member offshore Business analyst team for the world's third largest data warehouse-Galaxy.
- Facilitated formation of "Testing Center of Excellence".
- Managing the delivery of the projects objectively with focus on financial (Operating margins, revenue productivity), people matters (Appraisals, attrition, employee satisfaction) and organizational matters (Production Unit Initiatives).
- Coordinate among cross functional teams at global development facilities to ensure timely execution of Projects

Program Analyst, Infosys technologies Ltd.

- Successfully managed/executed complex and high-risk projects for multiple customers like Computer Associates, Amazon Inc., all of them got excellent customer feedback on performance.
- Recipient of "Project Excellence Award" in Product Engineering Department, in 2006.
- Led CMM-based process-improvements in multiple projects.
- Demonstrated capacity to initiate new engagements, appreciate customer processes and to identify the best execution model suited for the engagement.

Achievements

- Lead the team which won the "Project Excellence Award" in Product Engineering Department, Infosys
- Successful migration and setup for business analyst team for Ingenix, one of the core technological groups in UnitedHealth Group.
- Generated a $5mn engagement with a retail firm while working as a Technical Project Manager.

Areas of Interest

Consulting, Finance, IT, General Management