

Indian Institute of Management Indore

INTEGRATED PROGRAMME IN MANAGEMENT (IPM)
TERM: VIII

TITLE OF THE COURSE: Contemporary India: Society, and Culture
CREDITS: 3

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The course attempts to introduce students to current topics and debates specifically related to the study of contemporary India. The syllabus emphasis is on acquiring conceptual familiarity with the events and issues around us. The objective of the course is to help students comprehend key debates and themes related to contemporary India and to help familiarise and develop an understanding of interdisciplinary social science approaches.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

- 1) To critically analyse and evaluate themes and issues which have given contemporary India its distinct socio-economic and political trajectory.
- 2) Engage with latest in social science research methods and academic work related to the study of contemporary India.
- 3) Enhance skills in the critical analyses of academic texts.