Homepage

- After logging in using the self generated username and password you will see the following homepage.

The screenshot displays the CAPITALINE Databases homepage. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the logo and a search bar. Below it, a menu contains various options like Screener, Corporate Events, Company, Industry, House, Peerset, IPO, Factsheet, Live Application, and CM-Live News. The main content area is divided into three sections: Company (with a sidebar menu), Market Performance (showing Sensex and Nifty data and a line chart), and Market Statistics (showing a table of gainers and losers). At the bottom, there is an Indices Performance section with a table of indices and their values over different time periods.
