INDORE: The third batch of postgraduate programme in management (PGP) formally commenced on Sunday at IIM Mumbai campus with an induction and orientation programme.

Launched by Indian Institute of Management - Indore (IIM-I) in 2012 with 33 participants, the programme has grown popular with each passing year, where the number of the applicants for the batch of 2014-16 has risen to a handsome 462, out of which 67 participants have been duly registered.

On the occasion, Dr Ajit Ranade, chief economist, Aditya Birla Group, delivered an inspiring address to motivate the newly-admitted students to achieve academic and professional excellence.

Dr Ranade explained how there is a positive sentiment about the Indian economy in the next two years. He also elaborated on various recessionary phases in the world economy which included the sub-prime crisis in the year 2008. Dr Ajit Ranade compared the growth rate of India vis-à-vis the United States of America and Europe. With reference to Japan, he mentioned how the growth rate of a country does not affect the lifestyle of its citizens.

Student interaction with Dr Ranade revolved around the various industrial sectors and their contribution to the GDP over the last 30 years. Professor Rishikesh T Krishnan, director, IIM Indore, in his inaugural address, emphasised on the need to contribute to the society and advised the students to start thinking in the direction.

The Q&A session saw inquisitive participants asking questions about the contribution of service sector to GDP and dependence of Indian economy on it.

About PGP at IIM Indore-Mumbai campus

PGP-Mumbai is a two-year full time Post Graduate Programme in Management being run in Mumbai. The Programme consists of three terms in each year. The first year has a course structure identical to that of PGP at Indore campus. Frequent industry oriented workshops expose the participants to experiential learning which helps them to carry out small-scale live projects in the industry before proceeding for summer internships. As a social responsibility, the participants undergo an NGO Project Workshop, which enables them to work with various NGOs across the city, serving different needy segments of the society, especially underprivileged children.

The Second Year elective courses of the Programme enables the participants to acquire better understanding of different areas like Marketing, Finance, Strategy Operations, Information Systems, and Human Resources. The participants have one full term of campus immersion at Indore in the Second Year. This helps them to interact with a larger faculty and student base.

आईआईएम इंदौर के मुंबई कैंपस में पीजीपी बैच शुरू

इंदौर। इंडियन इंस्टीट्यूट ऑफ मैनेजमेंट (आईआईएम-आई) के मुंबई कैंपस में रविवार को पोस्ट ग्रेजुएट प्रोग्राम इन मैनेजमेंट (पीजीपी) के नए बैच की शुरुआत हुई। होटल पार्क में इंडक्शन व ओरिएंटेशन प्रोग्राम आयोजित किया गया।

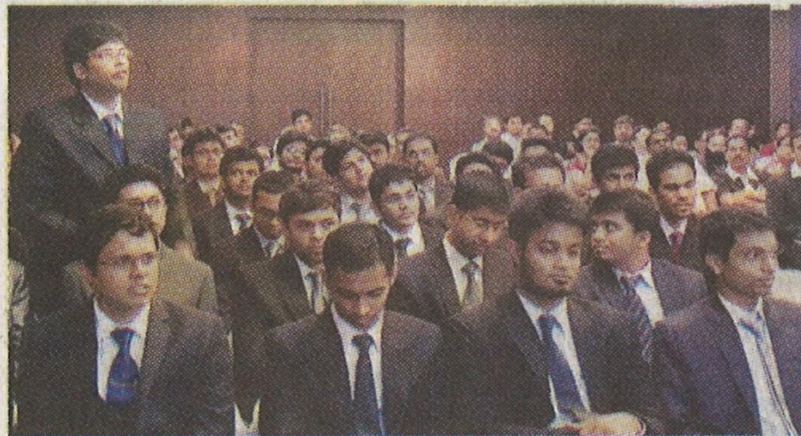

2012 में शुरू हुए कैंपस में यह तीसरा बैच है। इस साल पीजीपी मुंबई के लिए ज्यादा एप्लीकेशंस आई थीं। ओरिएंटेशन प्रोग्राम में नए स्टूडेंट्स को मोटिवेट करने के

लिए चीफ इकोनॉमिस्ट, आदित्य बिरला ग्रुप डॉ. अजित रानाडे मौजूद थे। उन्होंने अगले दो सालों में मिलने वाले अवसरों के बारे में स्टूडेंट्स को रूबरू करवाया। साथ ही 2008 में आई मंदी के बारे में भी बात की। क्वेश्चन-आंसर सेशन में स्टूडेंट्स ने जीडीपी से लेकर इंडियन इकोनॉमिक तक के बारे में कई प्रश्न किए। संस्थान के डायरेक्टर प्रो. ऋषिकेश टी. कृष्णन ने भी इस मौके पर स्टूडेंट्स को मोटिवेट किया।
